WEDF Talking Tatts

As part of our evening of ink we want to hear from you!

We have ten slots to fill with people willing to take stage and tell us why they love (or hate) their ink. In a fast paced, ad-lib style you'll have two minutes tell us the story of your ink.

Send us an email with a synopsis of your inky tale by 17th May to:

hello@wedesignforum.co.uk

And pick your subject line

Love: My ink's mint because...

Did you deliberate, plan and craft the illustration and carefully research your tattooist ending up with something that brings you joy every day?

Hate: My ink stinks because...

Was it a drunken Magaluf impulse tattoo that would make the Fixers cringe and you permanently keep it covered up?

The ten selected speakers will be notified in good time to prepare their story with audience participation to decide who takes the prize for the strongest Lover and of course the strongest Hater of their ink.

Each chosen speaker will receive their entrance ticket for free.
